

Principles of Robotics Symposium

The workshop will take the form of a debate on each of the 5 EPSRC Principles of Robotics, with at least one participant speaking in defence of the principle and one providing a critique. These focused debates will be followed by a broader and more open-ended discussion structure according to ideas raised in the written contributions, and with the goal of formulating some consensus recommendations.